The first system of music features a vocal line on a single staff and a piano accompaniment on two staves. The vocal line begins with a half note, followed by quarter notes and eighth notes. The piano accompaniment consists of a flowing sixteenth-note pattern in the right hand and a more rhythmic bass line in the left hand.

The second system continues the musical piece. The vocal line has a dynamic marking of mf and includes a cresc. instruction. The piano accompaniment maintains its rhythmic texture with some melodic variations in the right hand.

The third system shows the vocal line and piano accompaniment continuing. The piano accompaniment features a prominent melodic line in the right hand, often spanning across bar lines.

The fourth system includes a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line has a dynamic marking of p and a cresc. instruction. The piano accompaniment continues with its characteristic rhythmic and melodic patterns.

The fifth system concludes the page. The vocal line has dynamic markings of f and dim., and the piano accompaniment has an espress. marking. The tempo changes from rit. molto to a tempo in the final measures.
